AN OLD LANDMARK.

Cosmopolitan Hall to be Replaced by a Handsome Structure. What for many years was known to Washingtonians as Cosmopolitan Hall, at the southeast corner of Eighth and E streets northwest, has been demolished, and upon its site will be erected a more modern and imposing building. The property was purchased by Mr. Heurich, the brewer, and the building, when completed, will also have a large hall for social and business meetings. About eighteen feet of Abner's Hall building, now owned by the Anheuser Bush St. Louis Brewing Company, will be taken in for the improvement. E streets northwest, has been de-landmark. It was a place for hot lunches between 12 and 2 o'clock in the saloon below, and political and other meetings in the hall above. Durhe campaign of 1884, when Cleveland and Hendrick's were elected. Coamopolitan Hall was a sort of Tammany wigwam where the Jackson Democratic Club held its meetings and "whooped up" the cause of Grover Cleveland with a spirit and eloquence that had its influence outside of the National Capital.

MORSE'S PROPHETIC LECTURE.

A Complete Triumph of Democracy Throughout the World Predicted, Mr. Alexander Porter Morse, attorney at law, delivered a lecture yesterday afternoon, at the Catholic University. upon "International Public Law." He said that the principles of international law had been ascribed to Grotius, but recent research showed that it was due to the early writer, Francis Fuarez.

Mr. Morse reviewed the general principles of the law of nations and defended the art of diplomacy from the asper-sions that had been cast upon it. He predicted that in the next century there would be a complete triumph of de-mocracy throughout the world, and as a result would come the disarmament of

An Enjoyable Occasion,

A pleasant entertainment was given last evening by Messrs. Henry J. Doolan and Walter L. Lowe at 615 E street southeast. The festivities continued until midnight, when the gay throng departed for their homes. Among those present were: Misses Lillian Garrett, Fitchett, Emma Harding, Jennie Goss, Annie Daniels and Messes, Harry Garrett, James Flood, Edward Luskey, Harry Fowler, William Doolan, Benton Fowler. The evening was pleasantly spent.

Their New Pastor Received,

The Rev. C. W. Baldwin, the new pastor of Wesley Chapel at Fifth and I streets, was tendered a reception in the lecture room last night by members of the congregation. A piono duet was given by Miss Emily C. Feltham and Mrs. William R. Woodward, a bass solo by Mr. Dennison, vocal duets by Misses Appleman and Fitzbugh and Mrs. Ellis and Miss Chauncey. Refreshments were served.

The Sewers of Paris

are one of the modern wonders of the world. That marvelous network of underworld. That marvelous network of underground streams, over which the tourist can travel by rail and in boats, constitutes the bowels of the gay capital. This labyrinth of streams is kept with scrupulous care; for any obstruction in the flow of the sewage would be attended with serious results to the health of the inhabitants of the city above. The sewers of the human system are the liver and lowels, and, in order to keep disease out of the wonderful city of which they are a part, they must be kept always free and unobstructed. THE ACORN CLUB.

Its New Officers and Rooms-Objects of the Organization, The officers and other members who withdrew from the Cameo Club in a body last week, have reorganized and adopted the name Acorn to distinguish themselves. This body of congenials has been well-known in East Washington and to the social clubs of the city as members of the Cameo Club, but they now constitute the Acorn Club, and will be glad to meet their large circle of friends at their new club rooms on Pennsylvania avenue, near Third street southeast, which they are now fitting up. The object of the organization is social, literary and athletic. The club is now composed of H. G. Bayly, president; William F. Lacey, vice-president; Robert L. Greenwell, treasurer; D. S. Hughes secretary I. Farel College. Hughes, secretary; J. Frank Coleman, Charles Bradley, William G. Betts, William F. Hinkel and William G. Greenwell

LOCAL STOCKS.

Transactions on the Washington Ex-change—Notes and Gossip.

The sales yesterday of local stocks The sales yesterday of local stocks were again meagre on the Exchange. A round lot of 100 shares of Riggs Insurance stock brought 9½, with 9 bid at the close and 9½ asked. This is a good and safe stock and is likely to prove a valuable purchase at the price at which it sold. The management is of the best and safest, and for light rupping expenses there is no comparison between it and any other company in the city: besides the valuable lease which the directors had the sagacity to secure on its building when the comown rent free, but yields a revenue in addition. Further, it is not improbable that the dividends this summer may be increased to 8 per cent. There was another small sale of Metropolitan Railroad stock yesterday. It brought 175. A further offering, at the same price, was made, but the stock-list of to day will probably disclose that the asking price has been advanced. The dealings in Graphophone stock yesterday were interesting, perhaps in-structive. The first offer to sell was at 17 at which price an order reading: "Buy 50 Graphophone stock at 17 or less," was ready to take it. In fact the buyer was so convinced that his action was wise that his action was wise that was wise that his verbal instructions were "buy 50 shares" making the price without limit. The broker who the order with characteristic care for the welfare of his client's patron, though he was interested to see the stock sell higher, held back until an offer to sell at 15½ was made when the usual emphatic cry "sold" rang out.

What followed then, the alleged selling of 54 shares at 14½, 50 at 14½ and 50 at 14, might be accounted for on the theory that the offering and selling was a sham, in brokers' parlance "washed sales," which a good and true member of the board said to The Critic man the other day was his belief respecting numerous published sales of the board. But The Critic man at once took up the defense of the Exchange, replying, in substance: "I have a much better optation of you all than that. I trust your suspicion is groundless."

In this connection it may be remarked that the penalty of the Exchange for the crime of being a party to a washed sale, a fine of,$10, it may be $5, is a disgrace. It should be expulsion and surrender of those engaged in the nefarious business to the grand jury, if possible. However, admitting and hoping for the sase of the manhood of the members that the transactions were genuine. that the transactions were genuine, these low sales, showing a drop of 14 per cent. in a few minutes, are another indication that there are times when rare opportunities are found to get low-priced stocks at the board. The way for the public to reap the benefit is for buyers or sellers to in-struct a board broker directly, or through a "curbstone man," to buy or sell at a certain price, or better, if possible, and if the one giving the order is convinced that his proposed action is wise have the order remain good until fulfilled.

The market continues strong for American Security and Trust stock, with sales of 25 and 20 shares at 50½ for

THE DISMISSED POLICEMEN.

The three sergeants and one patrolman who were dismissed from duty through the action of the Commission ers were, as is understood, members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and had withstood the brunt of battle in more than one lively engagement dur ing the civil war.

The Grand Army men of the District have interested themselves in the matter of the removal of the policemen, and this morning a delegation appeared be-fore Commissioner Hine, with the re-quest that they might be heard, and that the testimony taken in the case against the officers might be furnished

The delegation was handed the testi mony after which they resolved them selves into a committee of the whole and thoroughly examined the evidence word for word and from beginning to end. After a further short interview with Commissioner Hine the delega tion left. One of the latter stated to a Chiric reporter that "he had nothing whatever to say about their visit."
